IN RE: CLAY v. REEVES et al., 05-125E; (EXHIBIT A)

Dear Sirs:

I am in receipt of your correspondence, which stated that, "the enclosed document has been scanned, but is illegible."

Unfortunately this is the only copy of this document, but as it is very important, and overlooked by the Magistrate Judge in her Report and Recommendation, I am enclosing two copies, one I have traced over clearly, and the other is the darkest that I could copy.

I referred to this document, and so did the defendants, where a question of law exists concerning the contents, and the elements of retaliation, with discovery, the Defendants can send the Original.

I would also like to request a copy of the Docketing History in this case.

Thank you for your time and assistance in this matter.
